

HOUSE RULES

Welcome to The Spare Room. Thanks for spending some time with us. Here is a bit about what we do. We are the result of a love for people, food, alcohol and music. We are a restaurant/bar who take pride in hospitality being a profession and we believe being hospitable is the core of this. Coffs Harbour and its surrounding regions produce some of the best produce worldwide and it's our pleasure to bring them to your plate. We also bring our love of music with a creative space that harbours live local music as well as top quality national acts that pass through this beautiful little village.

Now that we are well acquainted here are some house rules to ensure you have a good time...

- 1 . Please do not stand up outside with alcohol. The police don't like it.*
- 2 . If it is your birthday (and you are of age) let the bartenders know.*
- 3 . If at anytime you here the song 'Don't Stop Me Now' by Queen, order your last drinks at the bar.*
- 4 . Violence is not tolerated in The Spare Room. We are lovers not fighters. A life ban will be the consequence. No Exceptions.*
- 5 . When leaving The Spare Room, please do so quietly. We love our neighbours and unfortunately not everyone is up at midnight.*
- 6 . Real Life beats Tinder. Get off your phone.*
- 7 . When we have live acts please keep conversations soft as many patrons are here to listen.*
- 8 . Pizza with a knife and fork? Really?...*
- 9 . Have fun.*
- 10. Don't be a dick.*
